V. Unfinished/Old Business:

None at this time.

VI. New business:

a) Concessions:

Jeff VanCuren thanked his volunteers. Homecoming gross income $5800 (last year $5600). Spirit Night $5400. JV games average $950 each.

If the team goes undefeated, we will have home playoff games 11/19 and 11/26. We will need concession volunteers.

b) Fundraising:

Laura said the Chick-fil-A spirit night was very successful and we will do it again next year. We sold out of all 400 Chick-fil-A sandwiches. Laura plans an after action meeting with Jodi.

Pie and cookie dough sales started last Friday. Delivery 11/23.

Gift wrap schedule coming out soon.

Colleen Wieners is working on collecting recipes from band students, staff and parents for use in a Forge Music cookbook. This will be a minimal effort fundraiser. Books cost $5 to print with a 100 book minimum. Tina Offerjost to type.

c) Orchestra:

Cheryl Barker, the orchestra rep, is trying to improve orchestra involvement. Orchestra now has its own section on the website.

d) Music Marketplace:

New area on the website to sell your music related items. Bulletin board format, items posted once a week for four weeks. If the item does not sell in those four weeks, a student/parent may repost. Forms available on-line. See Jeff King w/questions.

e) Publicity:

Suzanne Bing, chairperson, discussed Senior Night (10/29) and the VBODA spirit caravan.

VII. Mr. Coston:

Mr. Coston said the spring band trip proposal went to the School Board for approval. The cost should be $500 per student. Payment plan follows previous years: $200 Dec, $200 Feb, and $100 March).

Five buses have been arranged for this Saturday's Liberty competition. Please NO NUT products are allowed on ANY bus.

Mr. Coston would like the Boosters or Diane Bender to contact Special Olympics about donating older band trophies for reuse.

VIII. Adjournment:

The next meeting will take place on 11/15/10 at 7pm. Richard Truman adjourned this meeting at 8:06pm
